Developing Leaders

One of the signs of a healthy multiplying ministry is whether or not we are raising up leaders for our churches to be sent out from our churches. There is always a need for more pastors, planters, missionaries, youth and children's workers and worship leaders to serve our churches. Cascade School of Theology is one of the ways we are seeking to raise up workers for the harvest. We have around 10 to 12 students who are working on their Masters degree. We are currently seeking to get more pastors who can be academic mentors in order to spread the load of mentoring and keep our costs down. Therefore, in addition to Andrew Pack, Geoff Hartt is an academic mentor and myself and few other pastors in the region will also be working toward becoming academic mentors. We are excited at how this will impact the future of our region.

Multiplying Congregations

It is a joy to report that the five churches that have been planted over the past four years are disciple-making healthy churches. Our hope is that by the grace of God we will continue to see the spread of the gospel in our communities and the multiplication of local congregations. We currently have two new planters in our region who are going to be assessed for planting this year. We also have a planter from outside our region who is praying about the possibility of planting in Post Falls, ID. God is also working in Utah. A family from our Colfax, WA church (the husband is a Cascade student) will be moving to Utah in the coming year to help in the church planting efforts there. There is another family from our region considering a move to Utah as well. Pray the Lord will continue to send workers in to the harvest.

Caring for Pastors

This continues to be one the things I spend a lot of time doing. I believe the health of our pastors is crucial to the health of the church and our region over all. Pray for our pastors. This past year has been extremely hard on our leaders in our churches. Pray for refreshment, rest, and encouragement for the pastors and elders of our churches and their families. As members of the body, our pastors need the same ministry from the church that they are providing for the church.

It is a tremendous privilege to serve the NAB Northwest and I look forward to all that God has in store for the coming year.

In His Grace,

Chris Gorman,
Regional Minister

A LETTER FROM OUR EXECUTIVE DIRECTOR

I pray that your love will overflow more and more, and that you will keep on growing in knowledge and understanding. For I want you to understand what really matters, so that you may live pure and blameless lives until the day of Christ’s return. May you always be filled with the fruit of your salvation—the righteous character produced in your life by Jesus Christ—for this will bring much glory and praise to God. (Philippians 1:9–11)

Greetings from the North American Baptist Conference and the staff of the International Office in Roseville, California. You are probably tired of hearing how unusual this year has been and continues to be. I know I am, but the reality is it is true. However, God is still at work and the Good News of the Gospel continues to be proclaimed around the globe because of the faithfulness and generosity of you and the NAB church family.

While God is doing many things in and through the NAB, there are a few areas that are particularly noteworthy.

The Bonfire

Because of restrictions on traveling across the US–Canada border, we’ve decided to try something a little different than our typical Blue Ocean cohort. Up to this point, The Bonfire has been a single annual event where many within the NAB who are on this missional/formational journey came together for a time of encouragement, challenging each other, and deepening our understanding of what it means to be formed in the image of Christ and on mission with God. This year, because we suspect God is up to something big in our world and in our nations and communities, we are trying something new in an attempt to deeply reflect on who we are becoming and where God may be leading us. We are calling it A Year of Bonfire. Each month from October to May, we will be meeting online via Zoom to listen, train, repent, hope, reflect, and inspire together on a series of topics, a new one each month. Our hope is that we will then cap off this season with our annual Bonfire gathering at Triennial in July. We are excited to see how God will use this extended time together.

Racial Righteousness

While the area of racial righteousness has been one of the key ends for the NAB for a number of years, the importance of the Church taking a lead role in this area has become even more significant in the months since George Floyd’s death and the subsequent protests and riots in Minneapolis and elsewhere. In just the past four months, Wayne Stapleton has co-led two webinars that served as the beginnings of a dialogue about and, for many, a wrestling with the issues of race in our world, as well as within the four walls of the church. The first webinar was a racial righteousness discussion with Pastor Norflette Shumake, and the second was “A Safe Space to Ask Tough Questions about Race” with Chris Gorman. Both webinars had strong attendance; in fact, the webinar with Pastor Shumake broke the record for the number of people attending an NAB video conference. By no means have we reached any kind of endpoint on this, but we trust that as a conference we are moving in the right direction.

International Missions

In the past year, two families have signed on as our newest NAB missionaries. Jason and Erin Bergman will be heading to Romania to work with the couples who are already ministering at Camp Falcon Rock, and Raffaele and Sylvia Gaudio will be joining the team in Japan, serving in the area of church planting. Both families are in the midst of fundraising, which is proving to be a bit more challenging in this season of limited travel. However, God is still providing by connecting them with churches and individuals willing to be financial partners in ministry. There are also some exciting developments on a few of our international fields. At Mbingo Baptist Hospital in Cameroon, the hydroelectric dam is finally nearing completion, and they recently installed a hospital-wide oxygen system. This last March, God brought to fruition the desire of the team at Komyo Christian Church when Hiroyuki Saijo took over as lead pastor from Paul Ewing, who will continue to partner with Pastor Saijo for the next two years. In just the last few months, a partnership between Sioux Falls Seminary and the Rio Grande do Sol Baptist Theological Seminary has brought the Kairos Project to pastors and leaders in Brazil.

Kent's Transition

As of September 1, Kent Carlson has taken on the role of regional minister for NorCal. October 1 is the date marking his transition to that position in a full-time capacity, though he will continue to work closely with the International Office as he remains involved in a number of key initiatives through Triennial in July 2021. I am excited to see him take on the role of regional minister, a position I trust he will flourish in.

Triennial

As is typical of us North American Baptists, much of our current ministry and programs are deeply connected to the upcoming Triennial. We continue to make plans and prepare for the 2021 Triennial under the theme of "Reimagine Hospitality." Our desire is that it would be a time for all of us to reimagine what biblical hospitality truly looks like and how we can practice it in our everyday lives. To that end, we have invited a number of gifted orators to speak into this theme, including Efrem Smith, the former president and CEO of World Impact and author of The Post-Black and Post-White Church; Julie Canlis, author of A Theology of the Ordinary; and James Choung, vice president of Strategy and Innovation at InterVarsity Christian Fellowship USA and author of True Story. Though our plans to meet in person in Saint Paul, Minnesota, remain the same, we will continue to monitor the guidelines from the US Centers for Disease Control and Prevention and the Public Health Agency of Canada as we seek God's wisdom in determining the feasibility and safety of physically gathering as one body.

All of this and more is a further testament that God is actively at work in our midst, in North America and internationally, and in our hearts and our communities.

In the love and grace of Christ our King,

Dan Heringer, Interim Executive Director

Church Investors Fund 2020 Association Report

Greetings from everyone here at Church Investors Fund, and blessings to you, the church, and the communities you faithfully serve. We pray for you regularly and will continue to do so in the coming year.

Health of our Ministry

2019 was another solid year for Church Investors Fund. Over the past year, we have seen a slight upswing in loan demand and are excited to put our investor's dollars to work to make a difference for God's Kingdom.

Although COVID-19 (Coronavirus) has made for uncertain times, Church Investors Fund has remained strong and our ministry partners have shown amazing resiliency. We have been blessed to remain open and continue serving our investors and churches through the pandemic. Although it's hard to predict what the future has in store, our significant reserves remain in place to protect our investor's dollars. We continue to pray and trust in God's guiding hand as we look to Him for guidance in the days and years ahead.

We Need Your Help

We still need your help in sharing the Church Investor Fund ministry with your church body. You can be a blessing to our ministry by sharing our video on a Sunday morning. The video is under 2-minutes in length. Call or e-mail us and request a USB drive or an online link to our video. It will make a difference! Thank you!

Ministry Consultants

We always strive to provide you a quality of service that glorifies God. This is why Ron Norman continues to serve with us at Church Investors Fund. Ron has served in various leadership roles throughout the NAB for many years. His role now is to reach out to NAB churches, discover your needs and determine how we can better serve and pray for you. If you have not had the chance to connect with Ron Norman, please do not hesitate to reach out to him at RNorman@cifinc.org.

Thank You!

Thank you to our investors! The funding of many building projects were made possible by people in our churches who decided to partner with us in ministry through entrusting a portion of their savings to Church Investors Fund and invest in making an eternal difference in God's Kingdom.

In His Service,

Bob Glim, V.P./Marketing

NORTH AMERICAN BAPTIST
CONFERENCE Heritage Commission

The mission of the North American Baptist Heritage Commission (NABHC) is to tell the story of God at work in and through the ministries of the North American Baptist (NAB) conference of churches. Staff and volunteers in the "Archives" which is located on the campus of Sioux Falls Seminary work to collect, preserve, and organize historical documents and records which reflect the history of the denomination. Artifacts such as the pulpit furniture from the Fleishmann Memorial Baptist Church in Philadelphia are on display (see photo to right).

Currently, in the age of COVID-19, the Archives are closed to the public. However, staff are willing to work with historians and researchers to locate items of interest from NAB churches, mission fields, seminaries, and personnel as they are requested. Contact us at nabarchives@nabconf.org or check out our webpage at nabarchives.org.

RESOURCES INCLUDE:

- Directories and conference reports dating back to the 1850's
 - Many church anniversary and dedication books and programs
 - A complete set of Der Sendbote and The Baptist Herald. (The Baptist Herald is currently being scanned and uploaded to the web. Just "Google" BAPTIST HERALD and click on the desired issue).
 - Many German Bibles and other books related to German Baptist history, beliefs, and practices
 - An extensive collection of books pertaining to NAB missions in Cameroon.
- Churches are encouraged to send important historical documents - including anniversary books and dedication programs - to the Heritage Commission. As is the case in most archives, space for storing documents and displaying artifacts is limited, so please contact us before sending written materials or artifacts.

6. Rocky Keel presented the proposed budget for 2020.

 - d. David Curtis motioned that the region accept the budget as presented, recognizing that an amendment would be added concerning the Regional Minister's salary. Carl Christman seconded the motion. VOTE: Affirmative

Be watching for the Fall 2020 Edition of our newsletter - Heritage Horizons. Below is an excerpt based on 1960's-era correspondence between the General Mission Secretary and various Field Secretaries in Cameroon and Nigeria: Both electronic and hard-copy-versions are available. Contact Randy if you are not subscribed.

“As I read letters and reports about financial resources, recruitment and placement of missionaries, interpersonal relationships, vehicle use and maintenance, travel and deputation schedules, passports and visas, health concerns of missionaries, an automobile crash which led to the death of a missionary, a gasoline explosion which badly burned another missionary, and the deadly Lassa virus in 1969, I came to a new appreciation for the sacrifices missionaries faced, the challenges of difficult decisions, and above all, God’s hand of blessing on this NAB mission enterprise.”

Notes on one particular missionary DOCTOR included the following items:

- I am arranging for delivery / installation of some WATER TANKS;
- I am purchasing PAINT;
- I need to buy CEMENT and SAND for a building project;
- At a minimum - we need to deal with the need for LATRINES;
- How do we dispose of GARBAGE?
- Our GENERATOR needed a new CRANKSHAFT;
- We have had to deal with some CATTLE RUSTLERS (perhaps an employee);
- We need KEROSENE;
- I have the supplies for the construction of a CHICKEN HOUSE / etc.

Heritage Commission Address:
2100 S Summit Ave, Sioux Falls, SD 57105

Romans 15:13 says, “May the God of hope fill you with all joy and peace as you trust in him, so that you may overflow with hope by the power of the Holy Spirit.”

You might not know this but Camp Tapawingo has a thematic goal, to be “a place of joy”. And while this past year hasn’t exactly presented a ton of opportunities to minister at camps and retreats; there is a sense of joy, peace, and hope in looking ahead at Camp Tapawingo.

We have experienced a lot of growth in the past seven years and this has placed a desire to be able to sustain the growth and our ability to minister in our Camp ministry setting. However, in order to grow, we needed to increase our staff to accommodate the needs of a growing ministry. This year Brad started his 23rd year as Operational Manager and will continue in this role. In March, Camp Tapawingo added another member to the team with the hiring of Steve Willems as Facility Manager. Steve has been a tremendous asset and has already tackled some big projects to expand and improve our campus. Steve and his wife Annie, along with 2 of their 4 children, moved to Tapawingo in August.

With the goal of increasing our ability to minister at camp, adding an additional staff member also created the need to provide a residence for this new position. I am happy to announce that we are currently building a second residence at Camp Tapawingo, with the hope for its completion to take place in early November.

Now the timing of all this was not something anyone could have predicted. And it hasn’t been without its difficulties either; the health crisis has prevented Tapawingo from hosting any camp ministry events due to county health restrictions. And yet, God has continued to provide for Tapawingo through a great many donations which continue to come in on a regular basis.

We thank God for these precious resources as we hope for a more ministry friendly year in 2021.

As always, we are grateful for the prayers and support given on behalf of Camp Tapawingo!

For His Glory,

On behalf of the Camp Board,
Bobby Van Kleek - Chairman
